

Responsibilities

The RSPB is not a Public Body and has no statutory responsibility with regard to regulating activities on marine protected areas. They manage and monitor the Coquet Island Bird Sanctuary and have a national role in promoting better understanding and protection of the natural environment.