

Responsibilities

Organisational Roles and Responsibilities	Relevant legislation or policy	Existing Management
Management of sites and properties (including coastal and foreshore sites)	The National Trust Acts 1907 to 1971	The National Trust own or manage significant land holdings on the Northumberland coast, including sites such as the Farne Islands
Creation and enforcement of Bylaws for land under National Trust management or ownership	The National Trust Acts 1907 to 1971	A number of Bylaws exist dealing with activities on specific sites